

City of Lake Geneva
Avian Committee
Special Meeting
2:00 pm
Tuesday, December 6, 2022
Conference room 2A

Purpose and description of this special meeting

This meeting was called for the sole purpose of writing and editing the City of Lake Geneva's application to Bird City Wisconsin. This was a work session to record past actions to fulfill the requirements of the application.

No motions were entertained and no votes were taken.

Call to order: Chair Sarah McConnell started the work session at 2:00 pm.

Roll call: Present – Alderperson Cindy Yager, Karen Gallo, Sarah McConnell, Jill Rodriguez, and Carol Zimmermann

Excused: Kelley Happ and Beverly Leonard

Comments from the public: No members of the public were present

Special Meeting content:

Members wrote and edited the various parts of the 2022 application and found and uploaded various forms of documentation, including hyperlinks, photos, and documents.

Major progress was made in completing the application. A few items still require action.

Cindy Yager will follow-up on the World Migratory Bird Day Resolution – 2023, which is a mandatory requirement.

Carol Zimmermann will find and upload the last of the missing documents.

The whole Committee will review progress at the next regular meeting.

Adjournment: By consensus, the meeting was concluded at 4:00 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Zimmermann (in the absence of our secretary – Kelley Happ)
